

VIEWFINDER

Patient Care Assistant Latoya Coleman plays with 15-month-old patient Abril Alex in Texas Children's cardiac catheterization lab. Coleman was named the hospital's Super Star employee for April. The Super Star program recognizes staff members who demonstrate a passion for the hospital's mission, are customer focused, act with unquestioned integrity and ethics, value everyone they come in contact with in their work and are dedicated to solving problems and achieving results. Photo by Allen Kramer.